Item 4 – Advisory Services

A. Firm Information

Huntwicke Advisors, LLC (“Huntwicke Advisors” or the “Advisor”) formerly Phalanx Wealth Management, LLC is a registered investment advisor with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), which is organized as a Limited Liability Company (“LLC”) under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Huntwicke Advisors was founded in 2009 by Brian A. Woodland (President) and is owned by Huntwicke Capital Group, LLC formerly Phalanx Partners, LLC, the parent company and operated by Mr. Woodland and Peter E. Mullholland (Chief Investment Officer and Chief Compliance Officer). This Disclosure Brochure provides information regarding the qualifications, business practices, and the advisory services provided by Huntwicke Advisors.

B. Advisory Services Offered

Huntwicke Advisors offers advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, estates and pooled investment vehicles in Massachusetts and other states (each referred to as a “Client”).

Investment Management Services

Huntwicke Advisors provides customized investment advisory solutions for its Clients. This is achieved through continuous personal Client contact and interaction while providing both discretionary and non-discretionary investment management and consulting services. Huntwicke Advisors works with each Client to identify their investment goals and objectives as well as risk tolerance and financial situation in order to create an investment strategy. Huntwicke Advisors will then construct a portfolio primarily consisting of mutual funds and exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”). In addition, from time-to-time, Huntwicke Advisors may utilize individual stocks and bonds, U.S. government securities, inverse ETFs and other investments as necessary to achieve the Client’s investment goals.

Huntwicke Advisors’ investment strategy is primarily long-term focused, but the Advisor may buy, sell or re-allocate positions that have been held less than one year to meet the objectives of the Client or due to market conditions. Huntwicke Advisors will construct, implement and monitor the portfolio to ensure it meets the goals, objectives, circumstances, and risk tolerance agreed to by the Client. Each Client will have the opportunity to place reasonable restrictions on the types of investments to be held in their respective portfolio, subject to the acceptance by the Advisor.

Huntwicke Advisors evaluates and selects investments for inclusion in Client portfolios only after applying their internal due diligence process. Huntwicke Advisors may recommend, on occasion, redistributing investment allocations to diversify the portfolio. Huntwicke Advisors may recommend specific positions to increase sector or asset class weightings. The Advisor may recommend employing cash positions as a possible hedge against market movement. Huntwicke Advisors may recommend selling positions for reasons that include, but are not limited to, harvesting capital gains or losses, business or sector risk exposure to a specific security or class of securities, overvaluation or overweighting of the position[s] in the portfolio, change in risk tolerance of Client, generating cash to meet Client needs, or any risk deemed unacceptable for the Client’s risk tolerance.

Huntwicke Advisors will provide investment advisory and related services. At no time will Huntwicke Advisors accept or maintain custody of a Client’s funds or securities, except for authorized deduction of the Advisor’s fees. All Client assets will be managed within their designated account[s] at the Custodian, pursuant to the Client investment advisory agreement.

Retirement Plan Advisory Services

Huntwicke Advisors offers retirement plan advisory services to various types of pension and profit sharing plans (each a “Plan”) and the sponsor of the Plan (the “Plan Sponsor”). The Advisor gathers and review extensive information on each Client and each plan. Huntwicke Advisors’ services include, but are not limited to, plan feasibility, plan design, and plan review, document preparation, and assistance with regulatory agencies. In addition, Huntwicke Advisors may assist in the selection of investment options, monitoring of investment performance, plan reporting, educational support and general advice to the plans’ participants.

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

Huntwicke Advisors will typically provide a variety of financial planning services to individuals and families, pursuant to a written financial planning or consulting agreement. Services are offered in several areas of a Client's financial situation, depending on their goals, objectives and financial situation. Generally, such financial planning services will involve preparing a financial plan or rendering a financial consultation for Clients based on the Client's financial goals and objectives. This planning or consulting may encompass one or more areas of need, including, but not limited to investment planning, retirement planning, personal savings, education savings and other areas of a Client's financial situation.

A financial plan developed for or financial consultation rendered to the Client will usually include general recommendations for a course of activity or specific actions to be taken by the Client. For example, recommendations may be made that the Client start or revise their investment programs, commence or alter retirement savings, establish education savings and/or charitable giving programs. Huntwicke Advisors may also refer Clients to an accountant, attorney or another specialist, as appropriate for their unique situation. For certain financial planning engagements, the Advisor will provide a written summary of Client's financial situation, observations, and recommendations. For consulting or ad-hoc engagements, the Advisor may not provide a written summary. Plans or consultations are typically completed within six months of contract date, assuming all information and documents requested are provided promptly.

Financial planning and consulting recommendations may pose a potential conflict between the interests of the Advisor and the interests of the Client. For example, a recommendation to engage the Advisor for investment management services or to increase the level of investment assets with the Advisor would pose a conflict, as it would increase the advisory fees paid to the Advisor. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendations made by the Advisor or maintain an ongoing relationship with the Advisor. If the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations made by the Advisor, the Client is under no obligation to execute the transaction through the Advisor.

C. Client Account Management

Prior to engaging Huntwicke Advisors to provide investment advisory services, each Client is required to enter into one or more advisory agreements with the Advisor that define the terms, conditions, authority and responsibilities of the Advisor and the Client. These services may include:

- Establishing an Investment Strategy – Huntwicke Advisors, in connection with the Client, will develop an investment strategy targeted to achieve the Client's investment goals and objectives.
- Asset Allocation – Huntwicke Advisors will develop a strategic asset allocation investment strategy that is targeted to meet the investment objectives, time horizon, financial situation and tolerance of risk for each Client.
- Portfolio Construction – Huntwicke Advisors will develop a portfolio for the Client that is intended to meet the stated goals and objectives of the Client.
- Investment Management and Supervision – Huntwicke Advisors will provide investment management and ongoing oversight of the Client's investment portfolio.

D. Wrap Fee Programs

Huntwicke Advisors does not manage or place Client assets into a wrap fee program. Investment management services are provided directly by Huntwicke Advisors.

E. Assets Under Management

As of December 31, 2016, Huntwicke Advisors manages the following assets:

Discretionary Assets	$118,269,898
Non-Discretionary Assets	$16,160,303
Total	$134,430,201

Clients may request more current information at any time by contacting the Advisor.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

The following paragraphs detail the fee structure and compensation methodology for services provided by the Advisor. Each Client shall sign one or more advisory agreements that detail the responsibilities of Huntwicke Advisors and the Client.

A. Fees for Advisory Services

Investment Management and Retirement Plan Advisory Services

Investment advisory fees for investment management and retirement plan advisory services are paid quarterly, in advance of each calendar quarter, pursuant to the terms of the advisory agreement. Advisory fees are based on the market value of assets under management at the end of the prior calendar quarter. Advisory fees range from 1.00% to 0.50% based on the following schedule:

Assets Under Management	Annual Rate
First $500,000	1.00%
Next $500,000	0.80%
Next $2,000,000	0.70%
Next $1,000,000	0.60%
Next $1,000,000	0.50%
Over $5,000,000	Negotiated

The advisory fee in the first quarter of service is prorated to the inception date of the account[s] to the end of the first quarter. At the end of the first quarter, the Client is billed for the first quarter's prorated fee as well as the next quarter's fee. Fees are negotiable at the sole discretion of the Advisor. The Client's fees will take into consideration the aggregate assets under management with Advisor. All securities held in accounts managed by Huntwicke Advisors will be independently valued by the Custodian. Huntwicke Advisors will not have the authority or responsibility to value portfolio securities.

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

Huntwicke Advisors offers financial planning or consulting services at an hourly rate of $150 per hour, which may be negotiable depending on the nature and complexity of each Client's circumstances. The hourly fees will be based on the complexity of the service that is anticipated to be necessary for the particular Client. An estimate for total hours and overall cost will be determined prior to engaging for these services. Generally, the Advisor bills one half of the estimated cost in advance and the remainders after the services are performed.

The Advisor's fee is exclusive of, and in addition to, brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses, which may be incurred by the Client. However, the Advisor shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs.

B. Fee Billing

Investment Management and Retirement Plan Advisory Services

Advisory fees for investment management and retirement plan advisory services will be calculated by the Advisor or its delegate and deducted from the Client's account[s] at the Custodian. The Advisor shall send an invoice to the Custodian indicating the amount of the fees to be deducted from the Client's account[s] at the respective quarter-end date. The amount due is calculated by applying the quarterly rate (annual rate divided by 4) to the total assets under management with Huntwicke Advisors at the end of the prior quarter. Clients will be provided with a statement, at least quarterly, from the Custodian reflecting deduction of the advisory fee. It is the responsibility of the Client to verify the accuracy of these fees as listed on the Custodian's brokerage statement as the Custodian does not assume this responsibility. Clients provide written authorization permitting Huntwicke Advisors to be paid directly from their accounts held by the Custodian as part of the advisory agreement and separate account forms provided by the Custodian. If so desired, the Client may choose to be billed directly by Huntwicke Advisors for fees.

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

Financial planning fees are invoiced up to fifty percent (50%) upon execution of the financial planning agreement with the remaining balance due upon the completion of the engagement deliverable[s].

C. Other Fees and Expenses

Clients may incur certain fees or charges imposed by third parties, other than Huntwicke Advisors, in connection with investment made on behalf of the Client's account[s]. The Client is responsible for all custody and securities execution fees charged by the Custodian and executing broker-dealer (if different). The advisory fee charged by Huntwicke Advisors is separate and distinct from these Custodian and execution fees.

In addition, all fees paid to Huntwicke Advisors for advisory services are separate and distinct from the expenses charged by mutual funds and exchange-traded funds to their shareholders, if applicable. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees and expenses will generally be used to pay management fees for the funds, other fund expenses, account administration (e.g., custody, brokerage and account reporting), and a possible distribution fee. A Client could invest in these products directly, without the services of Huntwicke Advisors, but would not receive the services provided by Huntwicke Advisors which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which products or services are most appropriate to each Client's financial condition and objectives. Accordingly, the Client should review both the fees charged by the fund[s] and the fees charged by Huntwicke Advisors to fully understand the total fees to be paid.

D. Advance Payment of Fees and Termination

Investment Management and Retirement Plan Advisory Services

Huntwicke Advisors is compensated for its services in advance of the quarter in which advisory services are rendered. Either party may request to terminate the advisory agreement, at any time, by providing advance written notice to the other party. The Client may also terminate the advisory agreement within five (5) business days of signing the Advisor's agreement at no cost to the Client. After the five-day period, the Client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the Client. Upon termination, the Client shall be responsible for advisory fees up to and including the effective date of termination and the Advisor will refund any unearned, prepaid fees. The Client's advisory agreement with the Advisor is non-transferable without the Client's prior consent.

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

Huntwicke Advisors may be partially compensated for its financial planning or consulting services before commencing the engagement. Either party may terminate a planning or consulting agreement, at any time, by providing written notice to the other party within five (5) business days of signing the Advisor's financial planning or consulting agreement. Upon termination, the Client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the Client. Any unearned, prepaid fees will be refunded to the Client. The Client's financial planning agreement with the Advisor is non-transferable without the Client's prior consent.

E. Compensation for Sales of Securities

Huntwicke Advisors does not buy or sell securities and does not receive any compensation for securities transactions in any Client account, other than the investment advisory fees noted above.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees

Huntwicke Advisors does not charge performance-based fees for its investment advisory services. The fees charged by Huntwicke Advisors are as described in Item 5 – Fees and Compensation above and are not based upon the capital appreciation of the funds or securities held by any Client.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

Huntwicke Advisors provides advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, estates and pooled investment vehicles. The relative percentage of each type of Client is available on Huntwicke Advisors' Form ADV Part 1. These percentages will change over time. Huntwicke Advisors generally requires a minimum relationship size of $50,000, which may be reduced at the sole discretion of the Advisor.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

A. Methods of Analysis

Huntwicke Advisors employs fundamental and technical analysis methods in developing investment strategies for its Clients. Research and analysis from Huntwicke Advisors is derived from numerous sources, including financial media companies, third-party research materials, Internet sources, and review of company activities, including annual reports, prospectuses, press releases and research prepared by others.

Fundamental analysis utilizes economic and business indicators as investment selection criteria. These criteria are generally ratios and trends that may indicate the overall strength and financial viability of the entity being analyzed. Assets are deemed suitable if they meet certain criteria to indicate that they are a strong investment with a value discounted by the market. While this type of analysis helps the Advisor in evaluating a potential investment, it does not guarantee that the investment will increase in value. Assets meeting the investment criteria utilized in the fundamental analysis may lose value and may have negative investment performance. The Advisor monitors these economic indicators to determine if adjustments to strategic allocations are appropriate. More details on the Advisor's review process are included below in "Item 13 – Review of Accounts".

Technical analysis involves the analysis of past market data rather than specific company data in determining the recommendations made to Clients. Technical analysis may involve the use of charts to identify market patterns and trends, which may be based on investor sentiment rather than the fundamentals of the company. The primary risk in using technical analysis is that spotting historical trends may not help to predict such trends in the future. Even if the trend will eventually reoccur, there is no guarantee that Huntwicke Advisors will be able to accurately predict such a reoccurrence.

As noted above, Huntwicke Advisors generally employs a long-term investment strategy for its Clients, as consistent with their financial goals. Huntwicke Advisors will typically hold all or a portion of a security for more than a year, but may hold for shorter periods for the purpose of rebalancing a portfolio or meeting the cash needs of Clients. At times, Huntwicke Advisors may also buy and sell positions that are more short-term in nature, depending on the goals of the Client and/or the fundamentals of the security, sector or asset class.

B. Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves certain investment risks. Securities may fluctuate in value or lose value. Clients should be prepared to bear the potential risk of loss. Huntwicke Advisors will assist Clients in determining an appropriate strategy based on their tolerance for risk and other factors noted above. However, there is no guarantee that a Client will meet their investment goals.

Each Client engagement will entail a review of the Client's investment goals, financial situation, time horizon, tolerance for risk and other factors to develop an appropriate strategy for managing a Client's account. Client participation in this process, including full and accurate disclosure of requested information, is essential for the analysis of a Client's account. The Advisor shall rely on the financial and other information provided by the Client or their designees without the duty or obligation to validate the accuracy and completeness of the provided information. It is the responsibility of the Client to inform the Advisor of any changes in financial condition, goals or other factors that may affect this analysis.

The Advisor will work with each Client to determine their tolerance for risk as part of the portfolio construction process. Huntwicke Advisors may use margin in Client accounts for to manage the timing of purchases and sales, as appropriate. Huntwicke Advisors may employ options strategies to hedge or gain additional exposure to a particular asset class or sector. Huntwicke Advisors' investment strategy may encompass active trading in concentrated portfolios. Following are some of the risks associated with certain transactions:

Options Contracts

Investments in options contracts have the risk of losing value in a relatively short period of time. Option contracts are leveraged instruments that allow the holder of a single contract to control many shares of an underlying stock. This leverage can compound gains or losses.

Frequent Trading

Frequent trading in securities can result in higher transaction costs in the Client's account[s]. For taxable accounts, frequent trading can also result in taxable transactions each year that would not be present in a buy-and-hold strategy. There are no guarantees that a frequent trading strategy will correctly time purchases and sales of any particular security.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities and other investments involve a risk of loss that each Client should understand and be willing to bear. Clients are reminded to discuss these risks with the Advisor.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, regulatory or disciplinary events involving Huntwicke Advisors or any of its Supervised Persons. Huntwicke Advisors and its Supervised Persons value the trust you place in us. As we advise all Clients, we encourage you to perform the requisite due diligence on any advisor or service provider in which you partner. Our backgrounds are on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at <http://adviserinfo.sec.gov> by searching with our firm name or our CRD#_149991.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

A. Code of Ethics

The Advisor has implemented a Code of Ethics that defines our fiduciary commitment to each Client. This Code of Ethics applies to all persons associated with the Advisor (our "Supervised Persons"). The Code of Ethics was developed to provide general ethical guidelines and specific instructions regarding our duties to you, our Client. The Advisor and its Supervised Persons owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client. It is the obligation of the Advisor associates to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code, but also to the general principles that guide the Code. The Code of Ethics covers a range of topics that address employee ethics and conflicts of interest. To request a copy of our Code of Ethics, please contact us at (978) 887-5981 or via email at pmulholland@huntwicke.com.

B. Personal Trading with Material Interest

The Advisor allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Huntwicke Advisors does not act as principal in any transactions. In addition, the Advisor does not advise an investment company. Huntwicke Advisors does not have a material interest in any securities traded in Client accounts.

Mr. Woodland, in a separate capacity, is also the Managing Member of certain limited partnerships – See Item 10 above. Huntwicke Advisors does not solicit Clients for investment in these limited partnerships. The vehicles are primarily invested in real estate. Mr. Woodland discloses this relationship to investors in the ADV Part 2A and his ADV 2B – Brochure Supplement. The assets invested in by the limited partnerships do not overlap with the assets traded by Huntwicke Advisors in connection with the services it provides to Clients. However, certain Clients may also have investments in or be offered these limited partnerships.

C. Personal Trading in Same Securities as Clients

The Advisor allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Owning the same securities we recommend (purchase or sell) to you presents a potential conflict of interest that, as fiduciaries, we must disclose to you and mitigate through policies and procedures. As noted above, we have adopted a Code of Ethics, which addresses insider trading (material non-public information controls) and personal securities reporting procedures. When trading for personal accounts, employees of Huntwicke Advisors may have a conflict of interest if trading in the same securities. The fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its Clients can potentially be violated if personal trades are made with more advantageous terms than Client trades, or by trading based on material non-public information. This risk is mitigated by Huntwicke Advisors requiring reporting of personal securities trades, by its Supervised Persons for review by the Chief Compliance Officer ("CCO"). We have also adopted written policies and procedures to detect the misuse of material, non-public information. In addition, the Code of Ethics governs Gifts and Entertainment given by and provided to the Advisor, outside employment activities of Supervised Persons, Employee reporting, sanctions for violations of the Code of Ethics, and records retention requirements for various aspects of the Code of Ethics.

D. Personal Trading at Same Time as Client

While the Advisor allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, these trades are typically aggregated with Client orders or traded afterwards. At no time, will the Advisor or any Supervised Person, transact in any security to the detriment of any Client.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

A. Recommendation of Custodian[s]

Huntwicke Advisors does not have discretionary authority to select the broker-dealer/custodian for custody and execution services. The Client will select the broker-dealer/custodian (herein the "Custodian") to safeguard Client assets and authorize Huntwicke Advisors to direct trades to the Custodian as agreed in the investment advisory agreement. Further, Huntwicke Advisors does not have the discretionary authority to negotiate commissions on behalf of our Clients on a trade-by-trade basis.

Where Huntwicke Advisors does not exercise discretion over the selection of the Custodian, the Advisor may recommend the Custodian to Clients for custody and execution services. Clients are not obligated to use the Custodian recommended by the Advisor and will not incur any extra fee or cost associated with using a custodian not recommended by Huntwicke Advisors. Huntwicke Advisors may recommend the Custodian based on criteria such as, but not limited to, reasonableness of commissions charged to the Client, services made available to the Client, reputation and/or location of the Custodian's offices. Huntwicke Advisors does not receive research services, other products, or compensation as a result of recommending a particular broker-dealer/custodian that may result in the Client paying higher commissions than those obtainable through other broker-dealer/custodians.

Huntwicke Advisors typically recommends to Clients that they established their brokerage account[s] at Fidelity Clearing & Custody Solutions, a division of Fidelity Investments, Inc, (collectively "Fidelity"). Fidelity is independent and unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealers and FINRA members. Huntwicke Advisors does not participate in soft dollar programs sponsored or offered by any broker-dealer/custodian. However, the Advisor does receive certain benefits from Fidelity, as detailed in Item 14 below.

2. Brokerage Referrals - Huntwicke Advisors does not receive any compensation from any third party in connection with the recommendation for establishing an account.

In selecting the Custodian, Huntwicke Advisors will not be obligated to select competitive bids on securities transactions and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available transaction costs. These costs are determined by the designated Custodian.

B. Aggregating and Allocating Trades

The primary objective in placing orders for the purchase and sale of securities for Client accounts is to obtain the most favorable net results taking into account such factors as 1) price, 2) size of order, 3) difficulty of execution, 4) confidentiality and 5) skill required of the Custodian. Huntwicke Advisors will execute its transactions through the Custodian as directed by the Client. Huntwicke Advisors may aggregate orders in a block trade or trades when securities are purchased or sold through the Custodian for multiple (discretionary) accounts. If a block trade cannot be executed in full at the same price or time, the securities actually purchased or sold by the close of each business day must be allocated in a manner that is consistent with the initial pre-allocation or other written statement. This must be done in a way that does not consistently advantage or disadvantage particular Client accounts.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

A. Frequency of Reviews

Securities in Client accounts are monitored on a regular and continuous basis by the Principal Officers. Formal reviews are generally conducted at least annually or more or less frequently depending on the needs of the Client.

B. Causes for Reviews

In addition to the investment monitoring noted in Item 13.A., each Client account shall be reviewed at least annually. Reviews may be conducted more or less frequently at the Client's request. Accounts may be reviewed as a result of major changes in economic conditions, known changes in the Client's financial situation, and/or large deposits or withdrawals in the Client's account[s]. The Client is encouraged to notify Huntwicke Advisors if changes occur in his/her personal financial situation that might adversely affect his/her investment plan. Additional reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events.

C. Review Reports

The Client will receive brokerage statements no less than quarterly from the Custodian. These brokerage statements are sent directly from the Custodian to the Client. The Client may also establish electronic access to the Custodian's website so that the Client may view these reports and their account activity. Participation in Institutional Advisor Platform

Huntwicke Advisors has established an institutional relationship with Fidelity to assist the Advisor in managing Client account[s]. Access to the Fidelity Institutional platform is provided at no charge to the Advisor. The Advisor receives access to software and related support without cost because the Advisor renders investment management services to Clients that maintain assets at Fidelity. The software and related systems support may benefit the Advisor, but not its Clients directly. In fulfilling its duties to its Clients, the Advisor endeavors at all times to put the interests of its Clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits from a Custodian creates a potential conflict of interest since these benefits may influence the Advisor's recommendation of this Custodian over one that does not furnish similar software, systems support, or services.

Additionally, the Advisor may receive the following benefits from Fidelity: receipt of duplicate Client confirmations and bundled duplicate statements; access to a trading desk that exclusively services its institutional participants; access to block trading which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts; and access to an electronic communication network for Client order entry and account information.

B. Client Referrals from Solicitors

Huntwicke Advisors does not engage paid solicitors for Client referrals.

Item 15 – Custody

Huntwicke Advisors does not accept or maintain custody of any Client accounts, except for authorized deduction of the Advisor's fees. All Clients must place their assets in a "qualified custodian". Clients are required to engage the Custodian to retain their funds and securities and direct Huntwicke Advisors to utilize the Custodian for the Client's security transactions. For more information about Custodians and brokerage practices, see Item 12.

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

Huntwicke Advisors may have discretion over the selection and amount of securities to be bought or sold in Client accounts without obtaining prior consent or approval from the Client. However, these purchases or sales may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines, or limitations previously set forth by the Client and agreed to by Huntwicke Advisors. Discretionary authority will only be authorized upon full disclosure to the Client. The granting of such authority will be evidenced by the Client's execution of an investment advisory agreement containing all applicable limitations to such authority. All discretionary trades made by Huntwicke Advisors will be in accordance with each Client's investment objectives and goals.

Under limited circumstances, Huntwicke Advisors may manage accounts on a non-discretionary basis. In these instances, Huntwicke Advisors provides recommendations to Clients and if recommendations are approved, Huntwicke Advisors will implement in accordance with the Client's instructions.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Huntwicke Advisors does not accept proxy-voting responsibility for any Client.

Item 18 – Financial Information

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP® (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 71,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP® Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP® Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP® Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP® Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.
